St. Valentine School Set to Celebrate Catholic Schools Week

St. Valentine School joins students across the nation in celebrating Catholic Schools Week January 25-30, 2009. The week begins with Mass on Sunday, January 25 at 12:00 noon, followed by an Open House for friends, family, parishioners, and prospective students and Open Registration for preschool through eighth grade. The students will continue the celebration with activities throughout the week:

Monday, January 26, 2009: Service Day

Students will clean St. Valentine Church and the surrounding grounds and supply the Cry Rooms. Eighth grade students will visit a local nursing home. Students are permitted to wear jeans.

Tuesday, January 27, 2009: Community Outreach

Students will reach out to the community to show thanks by making favors to distribute to patrons of the St. Valentine Regular Tuesday Night Bingo.

Wednesday, January 28, 2009: Mass and School Assembly

Students will attend the regular weekly school Mass at 8:30 AM. In the afternoon, they will attend an educational assembly. Students may wear St. Valentine School hooded sweatshirts with their uniform.

Thursday, January 29, 2009: Day of Retreat

Students will begin the day with Mass, followed by prayerful reflection, including Eucharistic Adoration.

Friday, January 30, 2009: Spirit Day

Students will join together in the afternoon at the AMF Bowling Center in Mt. Lebanon to close Catholic Schools Week 2009.
